Let's Imagine the World Together: Art in Southeast Asia

Exhibition Access Advisory

National Gallery Singapore is committed to creating an inclusive experience for our diverse audiences. For information on how to get here, please refer to the Gallery Access Guide.

Getting to the Exhibition

The exhibition is located at the Level 4 Gallery of the City Hall Wing.

From Coleman Street Entrance: Proceed to Lift Lobby A and take the accessible lift to Level 4. From Lift Lobby A, proceed down the hallway past the City Hall Chamber Mezzanine and turn left. The exhibition entrance will be on your right.

Nearest Lift Lobby: If you are coming from elsewhere in the Gallery, the nearest lift lobby to the exhibition is Lift Lobby B. From Lift Lobby B, walk straight ahead down the corridor. The exhibition entrance will be on your right.

Entrance and Exit: There is step-free access to the Level 4 Gallery.

Accessible Toilets: The nearest accessible toilet is located near Lift Lobby B. Please note that you will need to open a heavy manual door to get to the accessible toilet.

Drinking Fountains & Baby Changing Rooms: Drinking fountains and baby changing rooms are located near Lift Lobby B.

General Exhibition Accessibility

Wheelchair Accessibility: The exhibition is wheelchair accessible.

Seating: Benches and modular stools are available throughout the exhibition. For visitors who require seating with armrests and backrests, these are available in the final section of the exhibition.

Lighting: The exhibition space is well-lit.

Exhibition Content: Exhibition texts are available in English. They are also available in Malay, Tamil and Chinese as digital room sheets, which can be accessed via the QR code at the entrance of the exhibition.

Audio-visual Material: Slow Art Guide recordings and transcripts are available in English, Malay, Tamil and Chinese. Visitors with visual impairments can access the Tactile-Audio Interaction System (TAIS) resource for Boschbrand (Forest Fire) by Raden Saleh.
