

ITINERARY

Welcome to the fifth Gallery Children's Biennale! This is an art exhibition made for and with youngsters like yourself. You'll find eight fun-filled artworks by artists from around the world, each inspired by this year's theme, "Tomorrow We Will Be..." Come check it out with us!

If you have 60 minutes...

Head over to Basement 1 City Hall and Supreme Court Wings for::

I We Them by Vincente Delgado (Spain/Singapore)

#5 on the Map, 15 minutes

Check out the larger-than-life black-and-white illustrations and soft sculpture and create brand new connections. In this installation, the lines between art and audience blur.

TBC by Yeseung Lee (South Korea)

#4 on the Map, 15 minutes

What if you can create a brave new world of fantastic creatures? Artist Yeseung Lee's installation presents tazo puzzle pieces in the shape of animals that children can explore to bring their imaginary creatures to life!

Fantasy by Co2_karbondioksida (Malaysia)

#3 on the Map, 15 minutes

This dreamy space is made entirely of discarded toys and old children's clothes. A giant mobile repurposed from toys takes centerstage in the space.

Lessons in Being Kind by Souliya Phoumivong (Laos)

#2 on the Map, 15 minutes

Walk into an immersive viewing space that takes you into a story world of stop-motion animated handmade clay models. There is also a space where the children can make their own stop-motion video too!
