A GIFT FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

MAKE SOUTHEAST ASIAN ART YOUR LEGACY

FOREWORD

---

Do you recall a time when the arts moved you, stoked your curiosity, or changed your perspective? At National Gallery Singapore, we aim to create these experiences for our visitors every day.

Drawing on a rich public collection of art from Singapore and Southeast Asia, we seek to inspire visitors from all over the world through our innovative exhibitions and programmes. Your support plays a key role in realising this mission—it empowers us to build creative learning spaces for community development, pass on shared heritage and knowledge to diverse audiences, and transforms the role that museums play in our societies.

In short, your donations form the building blocks for Singapore and Southeast Asia's future in visual arts. We, and the generations to come, thank you for it.

NAMING OPPORTUNITY

The Gallery celebrates landmark gifts by naming spaces after our most significant donors. The work that we are doing would not be possible without the support of generous benefactors, and this is our way of expressing our gratitude.

SPONSORSHIP

The Gallery offers exhibition and programme sponsors (including in-kind) hospitality spaces for corporate events to engage employees, clients and the wider public. We are happy to tailor a package to your company's specific needs.

A GIFT OF ART

The Gallery accepts donations of art that enrich our collection. Donations are crucial to our mission to present Singapore and Southeast Asian modern art for generations to come. All proposed donations will be given careful consideration and must be endorsed by the Gallery's Acquisition Committee.

We accept artworks that are aligned with the Gallery's acquisition policy and collection strategy.
